

PHD SCHOLARSHIPS FOR MAKERERE UNIVERSITY FEMALE STAFF

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: RE-ADVERTISEMENT

Makerere University has received funding from Swedish International Development Agency (Sida) under the Makerere-Sida Bilateral Program Phase III. Part of this funding is to support five (5) candidates for PhD study programmes. Applications are now invited from eligible female members of staff of Makerere University to undertake PhD degree programmes in both humanities and sciences offered at Makerere University beginning in 2010/2011 Academic Year. The scholarship will cover Tuition fees, functional fees and Research/Field work only. The fund will be managed by the Gender Mainstreaming Division in collaboration with the School of Graduate Studies, Makerere University.

Eligibility Criteria for Applicants:

- Must be full time female Academic or Administrative/Technician members of staff of Makerere University from any unit of the University.
- Should be confirmed in the University service
- Must have secured admission to Makerere University for a PhD study programme
- Applicants for scholarship support at PhD level should have acquired a minimum of CGPA of 3.0 at Masters degree level.

Who should not apply:

- Female staff benefiting from other scholarships
- Part-time female staff

NB: Applications should have a copy of each of the following attachments:

1. Admission letter to a PhD degree study program
2. Academic Transcript (Bachelor's Degree)
3. Appointment letter to Makerere University service
4. Confirmation letter to Makerere University Service
5. Research Proposal or Concept paper

Deadline:

Duly completed applications with physical contact address, University Unit of work, personal telephone and email should reach the Gender Mainstreaming Division Office on or before Tuesday 12th October 2010 by 5.00 pm.

Applications should be submitted to:

The Head, Gender Mainstreaming Division,
Department of the Academic Registrar,
Senate Building, Level 4, Room 402.

Office Telephone:

1) 041-540184/541770

2) Cell Phone: 071-2-422485