

GLOCO PARTNERSHIPS BETWEEN UNIVERSITIES AND COMMUNITIES ON KNOWLEDGE CREATION AND TRANSFER

To Manage and Anticipate
21st Century Change and Transformation

Main Speakers

Presentation 1

Budd Hall, Director of Office of Community-Based Research and Professor of Public Administration, University of Victoria, B.C., Canada; Secretary, The Global Coalition for Community-Engaged Research ... on "Universities in Renegotiating their Relationships with Community."

Presentation 2

LEAD DISCUSSANT

Presentation 3

Lynn Thornton, Executive Director of VIDEA and Chair of the British Columbia, Canada NGO umbrella... on "NGOs/Civil Society Repositioning themselves to Serve Community Better: the Local and Global Dimensions."

Presentation 4

LEAD DISCUSSANT

Presentation 5

Paulo Wangoola, Founder and Nabyama (President) of Mpambo Afrikan Multiversity, an indigenous institution of higher learning, championing the necessity of equality of a multiplicity of ways of knowing and learning, consistent with the diversity of the world's peoples, their languages and cultures; and currently focused on Afrikan mother tongue higher learning, to advance Afrikan community cognitive autonomy... on "Afrikan Institutions of Higher Learning, the 21st Century Demands of Knowledge Society and the Challenge of Rediscovering Indigenous Knowledge."

Ms Janice Busingye

LEAD DISCUSSANT

Presentation 7

Kabona Mugalula Wamala, A Walusi Order Priest of Afrikan Spirituality and Head of the School of Afrikan Spirituality and Philosophy at Mpambo Afrikan Multiversity... on "From Bottom-Up: An Afrikan Mother Tongue View of Uganda's Institutions of Higher Learning – Voices in the Luganda Language".

Presentation 8

Oscar Mugula Department of Community Education

LEAD DISCUSSANTS. OPEN DISCUSSION. WRAP-UP BY HOST