- e) Diploma or certificate of competence in the language of the fellowship programme. If the official language of the applicant's country is different from the language of the fellowship programme, a diploma or certificate of competence in the language should be submitted directly to the United Nations Expert on Space Applications. This diploma/certificate should be issued by an accredited language institution or by the local UNDP upon satisfactory establishment of the applicant's competence in the language concerned.

3. Administrative Arrangements

a) Responsibilities of the United Nations

The United Nations will advertise the information on available fellowships and will, in consultation with the offering government/institutions, select qualified applicants as recipients of fellowship award.

The United Nations also may provide a number of selected participants with international round trip air ticket between the participant's international airport of departure and Turin, Italy.

b) Responsibilities of the nominating government/agency

The nominating government/agency will bear the following costs on behalf of the selected participant:

- i) All expenses in the home country for preparing the abroad travelling, including passport and visa fees, medical examinations, inoculations, and other miscellaneous items, and domestic travel to and from the international airport of departure, in the home country;
- ii) Salary and related allowances to which a participant may be entitled in his/her country during the period of the fellowship programme;
- iii) Life insurance and health insurance for the benefit of the participant for the duration of the fellowship programme study.

Special consideration will be given to applicants in the case of their nominating government/agency taking responsibility for covering the round-trip international travel fair from home country to Turin, Italy.

c) Applicants for a fellowship programme should note that the United Nations and the government/institutions offering the fellowships will NOT assume responsibility for the following expenditures:

- i) Any costs incurred by dependent or spouse who accompany the participant;

UNITED NATIONS
Office for Outer Space Affairs

- ii) Costs incurred by the participant with respect to travel insurance;
- iii) Loss or damage of personal property while enrolled in the fellowship programme;
- iv) Compensation in the event of death or disability of the participant in connection with his/her enrolment in the fellowship programme;
- v) Any claim toward expenses incurred by participants other than what is specified in the fellowship programme description document.

d) Termination of fellowship.

The United Nations, in consultation with the offering government/institutions, reserves the right to terminate the fellowship programme of any participant upon commencement of the study if:

- i) the participant's academic background regarding the subject of the fellowship programme is found to be inadequate; and/or
- ii) the participant's knowledge and understanding of the language of the fellowship programme are found to be inadequate to pursue the programme of study; and/or
- iii) the participant fails to observe proper conduct during the course of the fellowship programme study; and/or
- iv) the participant withdraws himself/herself from the fellowship programme without any reasonable justification accepted by the offering institution.

In the above cases of the fellowship termination, the UN Office for Outer Space Affairs and offering government/institutions reserve the right to claim from participant or his/her nominating agency cost of air ticket (if it was provided by the United Nations) and/or of the fellowship grant received by the time of termination.

4. Deadlines for Receipt of Applications

Only applicants whose completed application forms and all other supporting documents are received by the United Nations in Vienna before or by the deadline established for the fellowship programme, will be considered in the selection process for the fellowship concerned.

Special notice: Applicants should note that selection of fellowship recipients is made on a very competitive basis, as a large number of applications are generally received for a limited number of available fellowships.
