MASINDI High Court on Wednesday dismissed the case in which George William Namyaka, the Kibaale district chairman and NRM flag-bearer, was challenged over his academic documents.

The contention was in the initials that appear on certain documents

Justice Ralph Ochan dismissed the case filed by Henry Baguma, an independent candidate for the Kibaale district chairman seat, for lack of evidence and forgery of evidence.

According to Makerere University's head of teaching staff, Tanga Odoi, Namyaka graduated with a diploma in education in 1967 at Makerere then known as Makerere College.
