

Uganda: Makerere And Mubs

17 January 2011

EDITOR: I am amused by Ahamed Kyendo's dishonesty that there is nothing wrong with Makerere University Business School (MUBS) keeping the name Makerere.

Without going into the technicalities, why would an institution in Nakawa be called Makerere? Kyendo knows why. The name is famous and marketable.

That explains why Nasser Sebagala went to Ruskin College Oxford and came back thumping his chest that he had been to the University of Oxford!

He knew he was lying. I have no doubt MUBS is a great institution but it must let go of Makerere University's apron strings.
