Former champ Ahmed gets new co-driver

RALLYING - Former national rally champion Ashraf Ahmed has dropped his long time co-driver Musa Nsubuga and taken on Daniel Ayebare. Ahmed confirmed the move ahead of the Premier sprint dubbed Kikankane in Lubiri today. "We started rallying with Nsubuga and rose to prominence, but I decided to bring in new blood," Ahmed said. Ahmed added that he will use the sprint to prepare for the Mbarara rally due soon. Meanwhile, lady driver Laila Mayanja pulled out of the event following the death of her father.

Kenyans, Ugandans enter Champions Cup

TABLE TENNIS - Top stars from Kenya and Uganda will clash with their Swedish counterparts in the inaugural Table Tennis Champions Cup due at Austin Hall, Mbale, February 12-13. The tournament is facilitated by Swedish Table Tennis club, sponsors of Mbale Tigers Club. The Swedish club has lined up trophies, phones and cash for the top performers. Tournament coordinator Jude Mutete, said that Uganda will be represented by the top 16 players in each of the men's and women's events.

Makerere dedicates tournament to charity

VOLLEYBALL - The 37th Makerere volleyball Open due March 13-14 at the institution's main ground, will be dedicated to charity. "We are dedicating some of the proceeds from this tournament to the victims of the Budo fire," Makerere University volleyball captain Steven Waiswa said. The fire at the school premises in April last year, claimed the lives of 19 young girls. The annual event will also set in motion this year's Uganda Volleyball Federation activities. Various players are getting set for the event.
