The Erasmus Mundus Programme

The Erasmus Mundus 2009-2013 Programme is a cooperation and mobility programme in the area of Higher Education, implemented by the Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA).

In case of the Erasmus Mundus Action 2 – Strand 1 (EMA2 – STRAND 1), under which the DREAM Project is being developed, the management is carried out under the supervision of the Directorate General EuropeAid (DG Aidco).

Goals of Erasmus Mundus Programme

EMA2 – STRAND 1 main goals are:

- to promote the European Higher Education;

- to encourage the reinforcement and improvement of students' career perspectives;

- to favor the intercultural understanding through the cooperation with third countries, in harmony with the EU external policy objectives, in order to contribute to the sustainable development of the third countries' Higher Education.

- This strand includes partnerships between European and third countries' Higher Education Institutions, exchange and mobility in several Higher Education levels, and also a scholarship system.

The DREAM Partnership

- The DREAMConsortium comprises 8 European universities, 12 ACP Countries' Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) and 29 Associate Institutions.

- The project foresees 190 mobilities of: MASTER (degree and non-degree seeking); PhD (degree and non-degree seeking) and Staff (academic and administrative)

- Mobility Flows: ACP » Europe and Europe » ACP (only staff)
