

Dr. Martin Jerome Okec Alier, is an executive of repute and an influential leader who has acquired the experience of corporate business management from his Chairmanship and Directorship of leading companies at the national and international levels. The Dr. Martin Jerome Okec Alier brand reflects a professional and hardworking individual who has excelled in all walks of life- a distinguished alumnus, scholar, influential business leader gifted with the skill of enterprise. He is one of our leading senior citizens whose name rings a bell of dedicated service with an impeccable integrity, tested and proven business acumen making him one of the richest men in Uganda. He is an entrepreneurial mentor and a source of inspiration to the young and old. He brings a wealth of experience from the entrepreneurial side.

Contact details: martialiker@infocom.co.ug

Mr. Barnabas R. Tumusingize is a Managing Partner with Sebalu & Lule Advocates and Legal Consultants. He is an Alumnus of Makerere University and a leading financial services sector law practitioner in Uganda. He holds a Bachelor of Laws degree of Makerere University, a Post-Graduate Diploma in Legal Practice of the Law Development Centre (LDC) and a Master of Laws in Commercial & Corporate Law of the University of London. He heads the team that advises eight commercial banks in Uganda and he is additionally retained as Legal Counsel by the International Finance Corporation, for the East & Southern African Trade & Development Bank and the East African Development Bank. Mr. Tumusingize also practices with the firm's corporate and commercial law and capital markets department. He has overseen the listing of notes programmes on the Uganda Securities Exchange by a telecommunications company, a leading financial institution, a sugar manufacturer and a regional development bank. He is a member of the Uganda Law Society, the East African Law Society, the Commonwealth Lawyers Association and the International Bar Association, where he sits as the Vice-Chair of the Africa Region. He brings a wealth of experience from the legal and banking sector. Contact details: brt@sebalulule.co.ug.

Mr. Grace Isabirye, is a financial services professional as well as a certified public accountant. He is an alumnus of Makerere University. He holds an MBA and Bachelor's degree in Commerce from Makerere University. He is a guru in social security services who served as Acting Managing Director, Chief Investment Officer and Internal Auditor for the National Social Security Fund (NSSF). He has overseen various investments in all investment asset classes, and comes with a wealth of experience in the investments sphere. He is a Board Member at Posta Uganda. He has also held key positions at Housing Finance Bank and Uganda Development Bank. He is a member of Certified Public Accountant, CFA Institute, and the Global Association of Risk Professionals. Contact details: isagrace2001@yahoo.co.uk.

Mr. Martin Owiny is a former Board member of Kenya Commercial Bank (KCB) Uganda Ltd. He is an alumnus of Makerere University, and holds a Bachelor's degree specialising in Economics and Rural Economy and an MBA in Financial Management from the University of Hull. He was very instrumental in Trade Sales Management at Standard Chartered Bank. He also worked with Stanbic Bank for ten years where he provided leadership to the Investment Section. Because of his exemplary contribution towards the growth of the Uganda capital markets, he has received a number of accolades as investor awards under the Uganda Kikoyongo Capital Markets Awards. Mr. Owiny brings a wealth of experience from the banking sector. He is also on the list of The CEO Magazine's Ugandan CEO's in waiting. Contact details: owinyym@gmail.com

Ambassador Edith Ssempala, has served as an Ambassador for the Republic of Uganda for over 20 years to a wide array of countries. She has served as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the United States, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland and Iceland (Nordic Countries), Federal Democratic Republic of Ethiopia and Djibouti. She also served as Dean of the Diplomatic Corps, Copenhagen. She was Uganda's Representative to the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund holding several senior level positions namely Director, and Senior Advisor. Ambassador Ssempala holds a Master's degree in Civil Engineering from Lumbumba University, Moscow. Through her dignified service, Ambassador Ssempala has been a stalwart champion advocating for the advancement of not only her beloved Uganda but the entire African diaspora. She has served as; Permanent Representative of Uganda to the African Union (AU), United Nations Economic Commission for Africa, and Inter-Governmental Authority on Development (IGAD), Member and Representative of Uganda to the Peace and Security Council of the AU, Committee of Ambassadors of the IGAD Member States and the G15 Group of Ambassadors. She is also credited with a successful campaign for the African Growth and Opportunity Act (AGOA) which was signed into law by President Clinton in May, 2000 and the United States President's Emergency Relief Fund for HIV/AIDS. She has also served as board member on several organizations in Africa. Contact details:

ssempala_edith@yahoo.com

Hon. Gerald Karuhanga is currently the youth Member of Parliament representing Western Uganda. He is a Member of the Committee of Legal and Parliamentary Affairs as well as Public Accounts Committee. He is an alumnus of Makerere University who graduated with a Bachelor of Laws. During his student life at Makerere University, he served as Guild President in 2006. He was an exemplary leader who passionately advocated for openness, equity, transparency and accountability. He has also served as Director General - Justice and Development Council, as well as Executive Director, National Youth Think Tank. He is an active Member of the Makerere University Convocation who has generously supported Makerere University development programmes. He brings a wealth of experience from the public and private sectors. Contact details:

gkaruhanga@parliament.go.ug

Professor John Ddumba-Ssentamu is the Vice Chancellor of Makerere University. He has spent the past 35 years of his life in Makerere University, where he has served in various capacities and risen through the academic ranks to the position he now holds as Vice Chancellor and Professor of Economics. He holds a PhD in Economics,

M.A Economics and a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. He is widely published in the field of Economics. Under his leadership, the Department of Economics then under the Faculty of Social Sciences, was transformed into an Institute. Later, became a Faculty of Economics and Management and eventually the College of Business and Management Sciences. He was Principal of the College before taking on his current assignment as Vice Chancellor. At national level, he was the Care Taker Vice Chancellor of Ndejje University, from 1999 – 2001. He has served as Chairman of various Boards including Uganda Coffee Marketing Board and the Academic Board of the African Economic Research Consortium (AERC). Professor Ddumba-Ssentamu is currently Chairman Board of Directors - Centenary Bank; A Council Member of Muteesa-1 Royal University and the Chairperson Governing Council of Kisubi Brothers University College, a constituent College of Uganda Martyrs University Nkozi. At the international level, he represents Africa on the Finance Committee of Caritas International based in the Vatican and is a member of the Micro Finance Institutions Network in Africa. He is also a member of the Governing Council of the Association of African Universities, representing all Universities in Eastern Africa. Contact details: vc@admin.mak.ac.ug