The chairman of Makerere University Academic Staff Association (MUASA) Dr. Tang Odoi has today displayed before journalists information disputing the academic qualification of the acting vice chancellor of the university, Prof. Venasius Baryamureba and insists he is not feet to hold the post of chancellor as well as vice chancellor of the university.

Baryamurebayesterday told a news conference that he has all the qualification to make him the chancellor asking police to expeditiously carry out its investigation into alleged mismanagement of office by Barya to enable him be elected for chancellor which MUASA disputes.

However, Dr. Tang Odoi has revealed that he has no PhD in ICT from a UK university saying by the time he says he finished studying the institute had not started offering that course.
