CALL FOR APPLICATIONS: TO A TRAINING OF TRAINERS COURSE IN DIDACTICS AND STUDENT MENTORSHIP AT GRAND-GLOBAL HOTEL, MAKERERE KAMPALA 28TH -30TH SEPTEMBER 2015)

Makerere University in collaboration with the University of Nairobi, Sokoine University of Agriculture and University of Copenhagen are implementing a project entitled "Enhancing the quality of graduates of Agriculture to meet tomorrow's food security challenges (PREPARE-BSC project). The overall objective is to enable the partner universities to develop competent relevant high level human resources within agriculture, veterinary science and related fields (hereafter referred to as agriculture) to address food security as part of socio-economic development needs of the societies in Eastern Africa The PREPARE- BSC project is funded by EU through ACP-EDULINK II program.

The training of trainers (TOT) course is designed to produce graduates who are relevant for the societal needs and the work market demands. This training will function as a catalyst to boost food security and safety along the knowledge chain of agriculture. The course will expose participants to hands-on training in good teaching methods, student motivation, assessment and curriculum review processes.

Target group: The targeted group includes junior, mid-career and senior academic staff in the fields of Agriculture, Forestry, Veterinary, Environment, Natural Sciences and Food Science.

How to apply: Send a written application indicating interest to participate, addressed to Assoc. Prof. Fred Kabi, the PREPARE-BSC Project team leader P.O. Box 7062, Makerere University, Kampala. Please indicate your qualification, department and teaching experience. All applications should be sent to charlesgalabuzi@gmail.com Copy to fred.kabi@gmail.com.

Deadline for receiving applications: All applications should be received by 26th September 2015. Selected participants will be contacted by e-mail before 28th 09-2015. The workshop will be non-residential and a modest transport refund will be provided.