

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

ResilientAfrica Network (RAN)-Horn of Africa Resilience Innovation Lab (HoA RILab)

Is pleased to announce and invite you to apply for

Collaborative Resilience Innovation Design for Recurrent Effects of Chronic Internal Displacement (CRID4CID) Grants Call

Are you working on an innovative idea or approach that has potential to strengthen the resilience of communities in the following areas?

1. Competence and Skills Development for Improved Service Delivery
2. Diversified Livelihoods
3. Agro-Progress for Resilience

Stand a golden chance to win a SEED grant ranging from US$30,000 to $100,000*

For details, updates and to apply, visit www.grants.ranlab.org, www.horilab.org and www.ranlab.org
For further inquiry, please email us at: support.hoarilab@ranlab.org

Application deadline is October 24, 2016 at 23:59 EAT

RAN Core Partners

MAKERERE UNIVERSITY

CSIS | CENTER FOR STRATEGIC & INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

This is made possible by the generous support of the American people through the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The content is the responsibility of ResilientAfrica Network (RAN) and does not necessarily reflect the views of USAID or the United States Government