Hello Tomorrow

Welcome to the world of tomorrow: a world without frontiers, in which we unite people, places and cultures. We connect people with new experiences in over 150 destinations across six continents.

Wi-Fi

Connect to friends and family on the ground from all our A380s and most Boeing 777 aircraft. Enjoy 10MB of free data (that's enough to search, send emails and update Facebook). You can also pay for Wi-Fi data, which means that you can stay connected throughout your flight.

Our Crew

In order to meet your expectations and provide world-class service, our multilingual crew, carefully recruited from over 130 nationalities, are at your disposal. For Emirates, it is important that you always feel right at home.

Cuisine

Enjoy the flavours of world-famous meals prepared by renowned chefs. You can sample ingredients and regionally inspired dishes. Whether it's lunch or dinner, our onboard culinary gems include a number of dishes designed to excite and satisfy your appetite.

Economy Class

Experience a new class of Economy with extra space and mood lighting. Enjoy gourmet cuisine with a flavour of your destination or a comforting taste of home. All complemented by our range of wines, beers, spirits and soft drinks.

Inflight Entertainment

Choose from over 2500 channels on our award-winning inflight entertainment system, ICE. Catch up on the latest Hollywood blockbusters and your favourite TV shows, or sit back and relax with a laugh-out-loud comedy. You can also take on fellow travellers in head-to-head games and stay tuned to the latest news and sports with live TV on selected flights.

Business Class

Look forward to a perfect night's rest with lie-flat seats and savour regionally inspired dishes with menus designed by our master chefs. You'll arrive rested and inspired, ready for your next meeting or ready to explore new worlds.

Skywards

Thanks to Emirates and its many partners (airlines, hotels, car rental companies, credit cards, etc.), you can take advantage of the Emirates Skywards loyalty program and earn Miles quickly. Find out more at emirates.com/ug
