COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT MAKERERE UNIVERSITY

GUIDELINES FOR MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC WHO WISH TO SUBMIT INFORMATION

Makerere University has a zero tolerance policy on sexual harassment. On 2nd March 2018, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Barnabas Nawangwe appointed a five-person Committee to address the increasing reports of sexual harassment with a view to strengthening preventive measures as well as ensuring the full enforcement of the University Policy and regulations against Sexual Harassment (2006).

The Terms of Reference for the Committee on investigation of sexual harassment at Makerere University are as follows:

1. To investigate the causes of increasing cases of sexual harassment at the University;
2. To review Makerere University Sexual Harassment Policy and Regulations and make recommendations for its improvement; and
3. To receive submissions on Sexual Harassment at Makerere University.

In order to conduct a thorough investigation and review, the Committee is calling upon former students and other members of the wider public who may have any information regarding this matter to contact its members listed below. Please note that anonymous submissions are not permitted, but the Committee guarantees the confidentiality of all information it receives in so far as the law permits.
