BERLIN ENERGY
TRANSITION DIALOGUE
2 0 1 8

Every spring, high-level international decision makers come together to discuss the fundamental transition of the global energy sector and its impact in order to address climate change. The Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue connects stakeholders from politics, business and civil society. This two-day conference turns Berlin into the hotspot of the global energy transformation towards renewable energy and energy efficiency. You experience an ideal opportunity to share in-depth knowledge, discussing innovative concepts and shaping the political discourse.

Over the course of the week, unique hands-on experiences of the Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue, the TechFestival and EventHorizon, along with side events, guided tours, receptions, business-to-government formats and workshops, will be provided.

Evening reception, Kraftwerk Berlin

On Tuesday, 17 April 2018, the Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue's evening reception will bring together all guests of the Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue, the SET Tech Festival and EventHorizon at the Kraftwerk Berlin. In the halls of this former power plant, 18 international start ups will be presented as finalists in six award categories at the electrifying ceremony of the Start Up Energy Transition (SET) Award. Come along to find out who the winners of this year's SET Award are and witness innovation for a global energy transition at its best. Never has there been a better opportunity to mingle with high-level international decision makers, business leaders, investors, entrepreneurs, blockchain experts and ambitious fresh minds.
