

Through support of the IEEE Africa Committee, a Special Issue of the Africa Research Journal will be released with articles from Eastern Africa. The SAIEE Africa Research Journal is an accredited peer reviewed research journal published quarterly, covering research in all fields of electrical engineering. The journal initiated as the Transactions of the SAIEE Journal in 1909 and is indexed by IEEE Xplore as of January 2019. It publishes research, surveys and expository contributions in the fields of electrical, electronic, computer, information and communications engineering.

Call for Papers

The SAIEE Africa Research Journal calls for papers covering research carried out in Eastern Africa, or by researchers who are affiliated to research institutions in Eastern Africa. The articles may be of a theoretical or applied nature, must be novel and must not have been published elsewhere. Membership of SAIEE is not required. The main topics include:

- Aerospace
- Bioengineering
- Communication, Networking and Broadcast Technologies
- Components, Circuits, Devices and Systems
- Computing and Processing
- Engineered Materials, Dielectrics and Plasmas
- Engineering Profession
- Fields, Waves and Electromagnetics
- General Topics for Engineers
- Geoscience
- Nuclear Engineering
- Photonics and Electro-optics
- Power, Energy and Industry Applications
- Robotics and Control Systems
- Signal Processing and Analysis

Author Guidelines:

All submissions to the Africa Research Journal need to adhere to the formatting specifications provided at <http://goo.gl/8OcZVe>. The deadline for receiving submissions is December 30, 2019. More details, including a submission link, can be found at: <https://ieeexplore.ieee.org/xpl/aboutJournal.jsp?punumber=8475037>.

We call upon researchers, particularly from Eastern African, to consider the SAIEE Africa Research Journal as a medium for publishing their novel scholarly research. This will enable them to contribute to the body of published knowledge and reach a larger audience through this open access journal. For any further enquiries, contact the guest editors.
