OFFICE OF THE VICE-CHANCELLOR

MAK/VC/048/19

16th January 2020

The Family of the Late
Professor Johnson Opio Acon

CONDOLENCE MESSAGE

Makerere University learnt with great shock about the passing of Prof. Johnson Opio Acon which occurred on 15th January 2020 at Independent Hospital, Kampala. Please accept our sincere condolences.

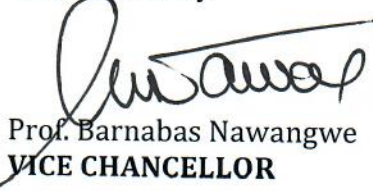

Professor Acon joined Makerere University in 1979 as a Special Assistant at the Department of Veterinary Clinical Studies. He was promoted to various levels and at the time of his death, he was working as a Senior Veterinary Surgeon at the Department of Veterinary Pharmacy, Clinical and Comparative Medicine, College of Veterinary Medicine, Animal Resources and Bio-Security (COVAB). At Makerere University, the Late Acon symbolized a well-cultured Professor in an African premier University. He observed noticeable attributes befitting of a distinguished academic that he exemplified quality, ethics, standards and professionalism in all forms and manner. He leaves an indelible mark at Makerere University. In his time of service with the University, he mentored many veterinary professionals and was very instrumental in disseminating knowledge to students and staff. He will be greatly missed by the University and the country at large.

No one can prepare you for a loss; it just comes like a swift wind but take comfort in knowing that he is now resting in the arms of the Almighty God. Please accept our heartfelt condolences at this most tough time and may the good Lord embrace you in comfort.

May his soul Rest in Eternal Peace.

Please accept a condolence token of Shillings One million only from Makerere University Management.

Yours sincerely

Prof. Barnabas Nawangwe
VICE CHANCELLOR
