Call for Scholarship application for Post Graduate Research Assistantship Position at the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering Makerere University

The Karlsruhe University of Applied Sciences (HKA) (Germany), Makerere University (MAK) (Kampala Uganda), University of Nairobi (UoN) (Nairobi Kenya) and Mekelle University (MU) (Mekelle Ethiopia) have started a 4 year R&D project “Collaboration for Active Mobility in Africa CAMA” under the program „Partnerships for sustainable solutions in sub-Sahara Africa“. The Project which is being funded by both the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) and Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF), aims to better capture the requirements of the pedestrians and cyclists and to illustrate their needs using digital surveys and crowd mapping approaches. To facilitate the development and uptake of tailor-made solutions to promote active mobility, the project will utilise learning alliances (bringing together researchers, community representatives, decision makers and experts from the field) to prepare real-life experiments (living labs) and test innovative solutions. To achieve the aforementioned objective, the project intends to utilize some of the resources to recruit a PhD Student who will double as project admin for the project.

In this regard, the CAMA uganda project is pleased to invite Ugandans to make applications for a the Post Graduate Research Assistanship Position at the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering Makerere University.
