

Training Opportunity

The Centre of Excellence for Sustainable Health (CESH), a collaboration between Karolinska Institute in Sweden and Makerere University in Uganda has developed tools for action to provide practical guidance and skills to researchers, students, and other practitioners to approach research and programming differently and ensure relevance, forward thinking, and impact.

CESH is thus organizing 1-day trainings on 2nd and 4th May 2023 to introduce participants in Uganda to two of the tools: 1) Translation of research to action and 2) Visualising and communicating data. Interested participants are invited to express interest to be part of this training by filling the appropriate short form below.

Workshop 1:

Translation of research to action

Date: Tuesday, 2nd May 2023, 8am to 5pm

Target participants: researchers, PhD students, and academic faculty in Health Sciences

Training mode: Physical in Kampala, Uganda.

Application link: <https://bit.ly/ApplyforTranslationofresearchtoactiontraining>

Application deadline: 7th April 2023

Workshop 2:

Visualising and communicating data

Date: Thursday, 4th May 2023, 8am to 5pm

Target participants: researchers, PhD students, academic faculty, civil society, public sector in any sector

Training mode: Physical in Kampala, Uganda.

Application link: <https://bit.ly/Applyforvisualisingandcommunicatingdatatraining>

Application deadline: 7th April 2023

Please note that only shortlisted applicants will be contacted by 22nd April 2023

For more details about the workshop, you may contact:

Irene Wanyana, iwanyana@musph.ac.ug or
Solomon Tsebeni Wafula swafula@musph.ac.ug

<https://cesh.health/>

@CESHCentre