

Scholarships for MA/MPhil students at Makerere University

The College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHUSS) and the University of Copenhagen/CERTIZENS Project announce:

Two scholarships for thesis research available for 2023/2024 within the Certifications of Citizenship in Africa (CERTIZENS) Research Project

Are you a first year student at Makerere University taking an MA/MPhil degree in disciplines such as Development Studies, Anthropology, Sociology, Political Science, History, Gender Studies, Peace and Conflict Studies, Law, or any other relevant discipline?

Are you interested in applying for one of two thesis scholarships for your second year of studies (in 2023/2024), and becoming part of an exciting, international collaborative research project about national ID registration and certification systems, entitled Certifications of Citizenship in Africa (CERTIZENS)?

If so, find details about the scholarship and application process in the full Call for Applications available on request from Assoc. Prof Asiimwe Godfrey (CERTIZENS Uganda Project Co-ordinator): god.asiimwe@gmail.com; Dr Naiga Resty (Head of Department, Development Studies): naigaresty19@gmail.com; Martin Buhamizo (CERTIZENS PhD): martinbuha@gmail.com; or Milcah Abasabyona (CERTIZENS PhD): abmilcah@yahoo.com You can also access the Call for Applications here <https://chuss.mak.ac.ug/en/>

Deadline for applications is midnight on Monday 28 August 2023
