

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS FOR NON DEGREE FELLOWS IN SCD AND RELATED NCDs

APPLY NOW

Makerere University School of Medicine (Department of Pediatrics & Child Health) and Busitema University Faculty of Health Sciences are the recipient of a Training Research Grant from the National Institutes of Health (NIH), Award No: 1D43TW012466-01.

The objective of the 5-year Training grant is to enhance National capacity for High quality research and Health Systems development in SCD and related NCDs across the lifespan.

The Project is soliciting for Applications for Two (2) Non-Degree Research Fellowship support in SCD and related NCDs across the lifespan research at Makerere University.

Selection Criteria:

Should be a faculty or a student at Makerere University, or Health Professional/ Social Scientist at a recognized institution. Project idea focused (but not limited) in any of the following:

- Biomedical aspects of SCD/ Related NCDs
- Clinical aspects of SCD/ Related NCDs and
- Psychosocial/ Ethical aspects of SCD/Related NCDs.
- Clinical/ Community Improvement project

Research Programs:

The following are the broad EnRiCH Research priority: areas (Themes) and applicants are encouraged to develop research concepts in the areas of; Biomedical, Clinical, Psychosocial, Ethical as research areas.

The research fellows will receive training in Bio-ethics, Implementation science, Behavioral sciences research, Qualitative and Quantitative research methodology, Data analysis and Research management. The review criteria for applicants will be as follows:

- Relevance to program objectives
- Quality of research/ Clinical/ Community project
- Feasibility of study/ Project
- Ethics and human subjects' protection.

APPLY TODAY

Applicants should submit an application consisting of;

- Cover letter (1 Page)
- A Curriculum Vitae
- One (1) Recommendation letter from Professional Referee or Mentor.
- 2 - Page concept addressing SCD and related NCDs.
- Applications must be addressed to the PI, EnRiCH project.

Email Application as a single PDF file to:

enrichd43@gmail.com

All Applications should be sent by:

20TH APRIL, 2025