Applicants are strongly encouraged to complete their applications and payments well before the deadline to avoid last-minute inconveniences.

5. IMPORTANT INFORMATION AND CAUTION

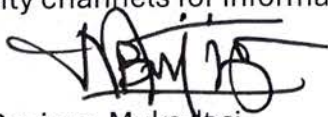

All applicants are advised to read and understand the application instructions (www.mak.ac.ug/see.mak.ac.ug) and requirements available on the official application portal before commencing the application process.

Please take note of the following:

1. Beware of fraud: Do not purchase documents or application materials from unauthorized sources. Applicants who do so act at their own risk.
2. No authorized agents: The Academic Registrar's Office has not appointed any agents to solicit additional payments beyond the prescribed application fee.
3. No coaching services: Makerere University does not provide coaching services for the Mature Age Entry Scheme examinations and has not appointed any agents to offer such services on its behalf.
4. Personal email and login credentials: Applicants should have a personal email address and keep their portal login credentials secure. These details may be used by the University to communicate important information regarding the application and examination process.
5. Examination-day requirements: Candidates must bring a coloured printout of the examination invitation letter bearing a clear, recent passport-size photograph, as specified in the application instructions. Photocopies of the invitation letter will not be accepted. Candidates must also bring two recent coloured passport-size photographs.
6. Eligibility under other admission schemes: Applicants who qualify for admission through other entry schemes are not eligible for admission under the Mature Age Entry Scheme. For avoidance of doubt, HOLDERS OF DIPLOMAS AND DEGREES ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO APPLY THROUGH THE MATURE AGE ENTRY SCHEME. They should apply through the Diploma Holders or Degree Holders admission scheme when advertised.
7. Integrity and compliance with Senate regulations: Applicants are reminded that impersonation, falsification of information or documents, fraudulent access, and the submission of false or incomplete information constitute serious offences. If discovered at the application stage, during examinations, at registration or thereafter, such misconduct may result in cancellation of examination results, cancellation of admission, revocation of an award where applicable, and prosecution in a court of law, in accordance with the applicable University regulations and laws.

The Academic Registrar urges all interested and eligible applicants to carefully follow the official instructions, observe the application deadline and use only authorised University channels for information and application purposes.
